Weekly Encourager

September 28, 2021

Have you noticed something new in front of the church, just off the bike path?

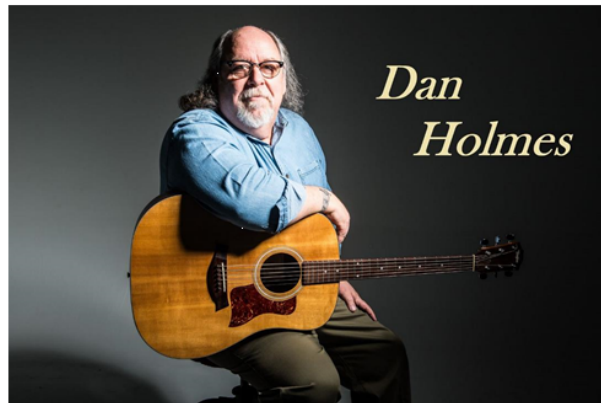

We're creating a prayer area as a way to bring the church to the community. It will include a little free library for children's books in honor of Miss Rose's work as a teacher at the preschool, a bench and the rock cross that John and Denise U. made for us, and a tree in memory of the mother of Miss Kathy, the preschool director

All are welcome to bring a lunch and to learn what the Cary Public Library has to offer.

Want to learn how to access their services on your device?

Bring your phone, tablet, or laptop, and we'll help.

We're excited to welcome back the music of Dan Holmes on Sunday, October 10.

He'll bring his acoustic guitar and his beautiful voice as he shares with us songs that he's written to God's glory.

If you missed

this week's service

PRAYER TEAM

Our team gathers on Wednesdays to pray for our community and for those whom have made a request.

Hear our Prayers

Thank you to the prayer team for compiling this week's list of ways to pray.

All are welcome!

6:00pm Wednesday

God, this week we lift to you prayers for

- Families seeking safe haven at our southern borders
- Folks recovering from procedures
- Those suffering from mental illness and anxiety
- St. Barnabas members to prayerfully consider their pledges for our ministries for next year
- Those without a home as the season changes

God, we also give thanks for

- The COVID positivity decline in Illinois
- The folks attending Explore St. Barnabas and thinking about St. Barnabas as their church home
